Reading the Newspaper

Headline __________________________ Type of article __________________________

Choose one article from the newspaper. Read the article underlining key points. Answer the questions below. Be prepared to give a quick summary of the article to the class.

1. Who is the article about?

________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

2. What has happened?

________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

3. When and Where did it happen?

________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

4. Why and How did it happen?

________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

5. Give some important details from the article. What do we need to know?

________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

6. Give your reaction to the article. What do you think about it.

________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________________

Use the back of the paper to finish your response if you run out of space